

Murston HeArt Poppy Project

a vision of remembrance for Swale

Murston HeArt and Swale in Bloom invite you to
The Opening Event
Saturday 6th October 11-3pm in the Grounds of Murston Old Church to commemorate the WW1 Centenary 1914-1918

During October and November 2018 a mass of poppies will be on display in the grounds of Murston Old Church and open to the public.

For full programme details visit our facebook page

Each poppy has been hand made over the past year by local schools, community groups and individuals and represent one of over 3000 fallen heroes from across Swale that gave their lives between 1914-1918

We did not forget

Facebook: murston heArt project Twitter: @murstonheArt www.murstonheart.org

This is a WW1 Centenary Commemoration Project - Kindly funded by Swale Borough Council & MAST

Murston HeArt Project, Murston Old Church, Stadium Way,
Murston ME10 3SB

